Catarrh Cured

Catarrh is a very prevalent disease, with distressing and offensive symptoms. Hood's Sarasparilla gives ready relief and speedy cure, from the fact it acts through the blood, nd thus reaches every part of the system.

" I suffered with entarrh fifteen years. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla and I am not troubled any with catarrh, and my general health is much better." I. W. LILLIS, Postal Clerk Chicage

"I suffered with estarrh 6 or 8 years; tried wonderful cures, inhalers, etc., spend-rly one hundred dollars without benefit.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities: 1st, the combination of remedial agents; 2d, the proportion; 2d, the process of securing the active medicinal ualities. The result is a medicine of unusual Send for book containing additional evidence.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite, and seems to make me over." J. P. Thompson, Begister of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.

"Every Spring, for years," writes Lizzie W. DeVean, 282 Fitteenth St., Brooklyn, N. Y., "I have had inteleg-able headaches. I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla last March, and have not had a headache since that time."

"I suffered from headache, indigestion, and debility, and was larely able to drag myself about the house," writes Mrs. M. M. Lewis, of A. st., Lowell, Mass. "Ayer's Sarsaparilla bas worked a marvelous change in my case. I now feel strong and well as ever."

Jonas Garman, Esq. of Lykins, Pa., writes: "For years I have suffered dreadfully, every Spring, from headache, caused by impurity of the blood and bilousness. It seemed for days and bilousness. It seemed for days and weeks that my head would split open. Nothing relieved me till I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has cured me completely.

When Mrs. Genevra Belanger, of 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass., began to use Ayer's Samajurilla, she had suffered for some years from a serious attention of the kidneys. Every Spring, also, she was afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. A friend persuaded her to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which benefited her wonderfully. Her health is now perfect. Then followed another wait of fifteen seconds when a great volume of black colored water shot up away over with a great shower of stones and drenching the more venturesome of the spectators who rushed toward the well.

The effect of the shot was at once discernible. The well was a good one before, but the deep, sullen roar from the five and five-eighths inch casting announced a find perhaps exceeding in volume any well yet drilled in the Kokemo field. When the union was put on and a connection with a two inch pipe made, the roar increased to a hourse scream, almost drowning the mighty shout that went up when the gas was lighted, throwing out a flame nearly to the top of the derrick.-Kokomo (Ind.) Brighton's Departed Glory.

At Brighton in November and December, when London is most intolerable, you may see a good many London faces, but never very many of the haute voice. Again, it is the workers, those whose interests or occupations force them to be near London and return often to it; or those whose means cannot afford long iourneys or maintain private estates; the broken down people of quality, the dowpeople go to Brighton because they cannot go where they prefer to. This is sure o take off the air of high fashion, for fashisn must do what its whims suggest without regard to purse or propriety; it must never be compelled or restrained.

There is, therefore, nowadays no great entertaining at Brighton; there are no great routs or assemblies as in the days of the prince regent-before he was George IV. People live in lodgings or at one or two great hotels, and ask a drive, and sometimes bathe; but that is all. There is no display of equipages or etiquettes or toilets; and there is that anxiety which destroys all elegance, but which at such places the upper English always display—not to be taken as knowing the people about them. The highest are seldom free from this vulgarity, while all the others are struggling to seem to know those who are determined to ignore them. Brighton always strikes me as an essentially second class place. Its great glory is a thing of the past, since it has

Not all of the hands are beautiful ones by any means. In fact really pretty mals are in the minority. There is a preaderance of fat palms and stubby fingers that does not speak well for the manual refinement of our best society. But even the best kept hands, unless they are symmetrical n proportion, are liable to look clumsy in a astograph. The variety of rings on this ollection of pictures is a credit to our jewelers. Indeed you can trace the fashious in rings for several years by them. "If I had the value of those rings," said the photogra-pher, meditatively, "I think I could spend a year in Europe and not have to swim home.
